TO-DAY'S MARKET REPORT.

Chicago Market.
Furnished by W. F. Federer, Broker in securities, bonds and stocks. Real Estate, Building, Farmer Securities and Jackson Street.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Wheat was dull today, reports of crop damage preventing much decline, while contradictory reports held prices fairly steady. May opened 3¢ higher at 60¢, sold down 2¢ and reacted in the opening price.

Corn was steady in sympathy with wheat. May opened unchanged at 37½, lost 1¢ advanced 1¢ and reacted in the opening price.

Oats were advanced 1¢ and reacted in the opening price.
